TWO YOUNG MONESSEN GIRLS MYSTERIOUSLY MISSING FROM HOME

Two Monessen girls, both aged 14 years, have been mysteriously missing from their homes since Tuesday an dtheir parents and friends are much wrought up as to their whereabouts.

Dorthy Fogel, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Fogel of East Donner avenue and Julia Malosh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Malosh of Forest street, were said to have been very close friends and confidents, and Tuesday morning both girls started to school as usual.

Both mothers attended the funeral of Michael Komoroski at St. Leonard's church and when they got home they found that the girls had returned to their respective homes, changed clothing, putting on their best apparel and were gone. Every possible effort has been made to locate the girls to no avail.

It is said the Fogel girl always had plenty of money and took her friends to shows and every sort of amusement, but it was a mystery where the supply of funds came from. She also wore a valuable ring, supposed to have been given her by a gentleman friend who pretended he wanted to marry her, and it is thought the girls may have gone to him supposedly some where in Ohio.

Mr. Malosh quit his work at the tin mill and all week has been searching for the missing girls. He has visited every town where they had friends, with no results, and the mystery is as deep as ever.

At noon today it was learned that the girls went to Canton, Ohio, where they spent a night with relatives. It is said the Fogel girl took $50.00 of her mother's money, and before leaving purchased a hat for the girl friend along with some other toggery. A relative of the Fogel girl left for Canton, Thursday morning, but just an hour too late as the girls had gone to parts unknown.

Last Monday, April 22 it is alleged, Tony Raphael of Webster, made information against Andy Potosniki, a boarder, before Squire White of Monessen, charging alienation of the affections of Mrs. Raphael and taking her from the home. It is said that along with the couple went household goods and $2,200 of Raphael's savings. This apparently occurred while Tony was at work.

The accused man and woman were apprehended yesterday at Clairton and brought back to Monessen last evening by automobile. Both were committed to the local jail by Justice White for a hearing which will be held this afternoon or Monday.

CONTRACT LET FOR ROAD LEADING TO THE COUNTY SEAT VIA ROUTE 118

News comes from Harrisburg that the contract has been let by the state highway department for two and one half miles of road on route 118 Greensburg. An Akron, Ohio firm was the only bidder. This will improve the road from the borough line at West Newton to the Woodward dairy farm in South Huntingdon township and the work will be started at once.

Great credit for his accomplishment reverts to the public road committee of the Monessen Board of Trade and several enterprising citizens of West Newton who gave of their time and service to this project covering a period of four years. The contract was about to be let by the state highway department when the supervisors of South Huntingdon township kicked over the traces, claiming their constituency would not approve of their act if they signed the agreement and that what this township wanted was the improvement of the old turnpike leading from West Newton to Mt. Pleasant. They felt if they blocked the Greensburg route, the money could be taken on 181. The contention lasted for several days, during which time Monessen and West Newton men worked faithfully to overcome the obstacle with fina successful results and a consumation devoutedly to be wished by the Monessen people. The building of two and one half miles of road at this time indicates that as soon as possible the road will be completed to Greensburg, giving the Monongahela and Youghiogheny valleys an outlet to the county seat.

Baby Dead

Elizabeth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brubaker, of 140 Schoonmaker avenue, died at the family home yesterday morning at 10:30 a. m., after a two weeks' illness of pneumonia, aged one year and 20 days. The funeral services will be conducted at the home, Sunday afternoon by Rev. I. Jay Duke, of the U. B. church. Interment will be made in Grandview cemetery.

Perfect Quality

The Philadelphia Candy Kitchen has gone the limit 100% on the purchase of Liberty Bonds, and from the management to the assistants a just pride is felt. Aside from helping Uncle Sam in this great struggle, the Philadelphia Candy Kitchen also gives even over 100% in the quality of refgreshments—Ice Cream, Sodas, Sundaes, all kinds of drinks and home-made candies. The finest in the world. The best to be had at the price. Quality first, price an after consideration. Don't forget the best place in Monessen to get your refreshments.

Makes Statement

To the public in general and all whom it may concern:

I, Wm. Fairfax, wish to correct the statement published several evenings ago in this paper. I wish to say I was asked on Monday to take a Liberty bond. I replied that I had two and had not finished paying for one of them and I have a large family to care for so I do not see my way clear to take another. On Tuesday, they came in and said "Are you going to take another bond?" I replied with my same statement. They yelled at once "Take him out." They had a crowd and they pounced upon me, beating me over the head and shoulders. Some one in the crowd put their hands over my mouth so I could not speak. They dragged me out and I finally got a chance to speak. I told them I had been a citizen of this town for 16 years and I never was in any trouble. I never made an unpatriotic remark nor did I say I would whip any white man in the bunch.

After the crowd became quiet, it was asked if any others heard such remarks and they said 'No," but still it was published that I made these remarks. I told them I would take a bond and would have done so without all that excitement. I have subscribed to all patriotic causes that I have been asked to and I just want to say right here I am willing and ready to "do my bit" as far as I can as a patriotic citizen.

William Fairfax.

Too Bashful

"Too bashful to appear before a physician for examination" was the explanation given by William and Christian Hoag of Connellsville before Judge Charles P. Orr in the United States district court in Pittsburg yesterday morning when arraigned on a charge of having failed to submit to physical examination under the selective service law.

The Hoag brothers refused to submit to examination even after they had been informed by the court that a jail sentence was the alternative. The case was continued until Monday to give them a chance to think the matter over.

The Community Bible Class

Meets every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Baptist church. Teacher, Rev. John C. Page of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Subject: "Prophetic Studies in the Book of Revelations." All are welcome.

LAUNDRYMEN ARE BEING COMPELLED TO RAISE PRICES ON THEIR WORK

Not the high cost of living so much as the high cost of dressing and keeping clean white house linen is about to take another step upward. This time the advance will come by way of the laundry, and we note that in many places the advance has already been made.

In an interview with the management of the Monessen Laundry & Cleaning company this morning, it was learned that an advance had not been made there yet, but it was anticipated in a few days. It is stated that if the raise comes, it will all go to the employes as they are requesting an advance in line with that made a few days ago by the local mills. Alleged advances in soap, starch, etc., will not figure in Monessen, but nothing will be considered in the advance except the demanded increase in wages.

In Pittsburgh the advanced prices for laundering are already in effect.

A raise of one cent an article in almost all wearing apparel and dry goods usually sent to a laundry is in effect. Napkins, hand towels and handkerchiefs are exempt, but collars, shirts etc., are included in the list on which prices have been boosted.

Formerly it cost three cents to have a collar laundered. Now it costs four. A shirt used to cost 17 cents, now it costs 18 and so on.

The laundrymen of Pittsburgh have 100 reasons for the advance. The first four were that soap, starch, labor and fuel had advanced so rapidly and to such a height that it was necessary to dig into mere man's pockets to keep a surplus on the credit of the old ledgers of the laundries.

Child Missing From Home

Angelina, the two and one half years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Olando, of 118 Thrid street, disappeared from her home at noon today and a search so far failed to reveal her whereabouts. The child with a kitty car was playing on the street when she disappeared. The frantic parents will be grateful for any news of the child's whereabouts The police are asked to assist in every way possible to aid in any way to locate the missing one.

Card From France

A card was received at the Independent office today from Foster Alexander of Monessen, who is now fighting with the "Boys in France." The card is postmarked March 26, and states that he is quite well, but complained that he had not received news from Monessen for quite a time. Foster is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Alexander of Reed avenue, and his card was addressed to Roy Woodfill, an employe of the Daily Independent, who is now in the naval department, now located on a vessel at Philadelphia.

LAST CALL FOR THE BONDS

This is a war not merely of guns and bullets, but it is a struggle of national sentiment. We have to be very careful that a front of united feeling is presented to our foes. There can be no hope of ending the war so long as Germany believes our people are not unitedly behind it.

The subscription of the Liberty Loan is the most accurate register of public sentiment. Germany does not care how our people talk. She wants to know what they will do. If they won't dig down into their pockets for money, she will feel that the war does not have general sanction, and that we will make peace the first time an easy way out is offered. That will encourage her to keep on and on and on and kill more and more of our boys.

There is a tendency among some people to wait until the last moment, thinking perhaps their help will not be needed. That is taking chances. It is not possible to get too much money. If double the amount asked for could be obtained, the significance of the thing would not be lost on Berlin. It would show them that we mean business. When they get it thoroughly into their heads that we do mean business, there will be some change in their attitude. Probably not a sufficient change to justify ending the war, but they will have begun to see through the mists of illusion. Then there will be some hope that they will abandon their maniac desire to dominate the world.

Wherefore let us go the limit to help put over the loan, and to make a big over subscription. The individual man may say that his little subscription amounts to nothing. Yet if everyone takes that view, the loan will be a failure, and the world's finger of shame will be pointed at slacking America.

Buy a bond and enjoy the satisfaction that comes from good patriotism and good citizenship.

STREET LITTER

One of the worst propositions in town life is the tendency for old paper and other litter to collect in the streets. People buy bags of candy, chewing gum, cigaret boxes, fruit etc., and throw away the paper and pasteboard covers in the street. They seem to think that the tax payers have a force of men hired on purpose to wait on them and pick their leavings out of the gutter. Some of these careless people should not be blamed too severely. Perhaps they come fro mhomes where the broom is not popular and they know no better. They cannot be expected to keep the street in better order than they do their own homes.

But there are others who do know better and should be ashamed of their heedlessness. Also in most towns there are a few merchants who think the corrct thing to do with dirt on their floors is to sweep it into the street.

One ought to have the same feeling of pride in the appearance of his town that he does in the looks of his home. The appearance of many otherwise attractive communities is ruined by the carelessness of its people. They may have fines public and business buildings. But if their streets are scattered with refuse, no visitor looks with admiration on any evidence of wealth or prosperity. It all takes on the look of a dingy and slovenly decay.

If you have waste paper or litter in you rhands, place it in the receptacles designed for the same, or put it in your pocket and dispose of it at home. Every time you throw waste into the streets you either increase the taxes for street cars or help make your home town look like a slum.

THE WAY TO SECURE PEACE

In order to secure peace in this world, it has been necessary to fight for it. One great reason why our country had no serious foreign wars for so many years, was that our people had fully demonstrated their courage in hard fought battles. After the account our forefathers gave of themselves in the Revolutionary war and that of 1812, no one cared muct to attack us. The splendid courage shown by both parties in the Civil war acted as a deterrent to nations having hostile intentions.

We have been living comfortable and peaceful lives during recent years. Germany did not believe we had any fighting ability left. She thought we could be safely affronted.

Having now undertaken to fight, we must do it in such a way that our foes will remember us. The more courageously we stand the shock of arms, the more our physical and moral stamina will be respected by the bully nations, the less likely they will be to defy us again.

Burns, Cuts, Bruises

San Cura Ointment Relieves Pain, Draws Out Poison and Heals Promptly

There is no better remedy for burns, cuts and bruises than the antiseptic and healing ointment called San Cura.

Every person ought to have a jar on hand; it is the first and best aid to the injured in case of accident, and is the ideal remedy for so many other distressing and painful ailments besides.

For example, it is guaranteed by Craig's drug store to relieve itching, bleeding and protruding piles, eczema, tetter, ulcers, salt rheum, boils, carbuncles and pimples, or money back.

In case of old running sores, no matter how long standing, a few poultices of San Cura Ointment will draw out the poison, and leave them in such a thoroughly aseptic condition that they will heal promptly.

We advise every reader to get a jar of San Cura Ointment today, and keep it ready for an accident or emergency that may happen. 30 cents, 60c and $1.20 at Craig's drug store on the money-back plan.

SOAP FOR THE SCALP

San Cura Soap is delightful for shampooing, because it is full of antiseptic properties that banish the germs of dead dandruff and other impurities from the scalp. It removes pimples and blackheads, too. 25 cents a cake at Craig's drug store. If your druggist doesn't keep it, send to the Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa. adv.

CHALLENGE every tire before you buy. Make it give the watchword of tire quality, Tested. Make it show the countersign of tire supremacy, the Goodrich trademark. If a tire answers "Goodrich Tested," buy it. It is a friend.

It will give you full and lasting service because its service, put to the nation-wide road test of Goodrich Test Car Fleets, has measured up to the Goodrich standard of tires, the Tested of—

GOODRICH TESTED TIRES

There is no risk with the tire that can give the password "TESTED," for no weakness, no structural failing, could hide itself during the month to month, season to season, testing of the Test Car Fleets.

SILVERTOWN CORDS, and BLACK SAFETY TREADS, challenged America's roads, and under light and heavy cars fought sand, gravel, and rock, in rain, mud, snow, and slush, and defeated them. The spiral-wrapped, cable-cord tire body stood staunch against the hammering of mountain trails. The close-clutch, cross-barred, non-skid black safety tread, baffled the teeth of desert and prairie paths.

Demand this password of all tires before you buy, and you will get the durability, dependability, and economy of the tires which the roads of every region of our land proclaim, "America's Tested Tires."

You are asked to spend wisely—to buy only the things honestly needed to maintain your health and efficiency. This is intelligent thrift. The Government asks it of you as a war measure : :

Bonds Are Not A Burden, But A Blessing

Thrift requires the exercise of restraint and self-denial—qualities without which you cannot achieve the success in life which it is your ambition to achieve and for the lack of which you are likely to suffer in later years.

The money you acquire by thrift you are asked to loan—not give—to your country. It will come back to you when you may need it far more than you do now, and you will be paid interest for its use.

This war is a frightful thing, but it may prove of inestimable benefit to you, if it teaches you the good habit of thrift.

ENTIRE STATE INTERESTED

All Sections Report Wave in Favor of His Nomination by Republicans. Lieutenant Governor McClain, Dr. Conwell and Hon. Benjamin Dimmick Speak Eloquently of Sproul's Qualifications.

Philadelphia, April 23—If there could possibly be any doubt as to how the majority of Republican voters of Pennsylvania feel toward the gubernatorial candidacy of Senator William C. Sproul, it has been removed by the developments since he made public his platform a few weeks ago.

From Philadelphia in the southeastern corner of the state to Erie in the extreme northwest, and from Greene county in the southwest to Wayne in the northeast, gratifying reports regarding Senator Sproul have been made to his headquarters here. It looks as if he will carry the state by an enormous majority at the primary election on May 21st.

A feature of Senator Sproul's candidacy is the large number of business men, farmers, labor men and citizens of other pursuits who have openly made declarations in his favor.

A list of the men who have declared for Senator Sproul, and whose names are household words by reason of prominence or distinguished service to the state, would fill a column of a newspaper. It would seem as if a great army of potential citizens of Pennsylvania were awaiting the candidacy of a man of Senator Sproul's type, and now that he is in the contest, he is being aided by Republicans who reside in every nook and corner of this great commonwealth

What Former Governor Stuart Says.

An endorsement of Senator Sproul which stands out as something worth while is that of Honorable Edwin S. Stuart, former governor of Pennsylvania. Governor Stuart says in his letter:

"Senator Sproul is a man of affairs; he has had a long varied and successful business career; he has exceptional knowledge and practical experience in the work of the various departments of the state government, acquired in his faithful service as a State Senator extending over a period of nearly a quarter of a century.

"He has a wide acquaintance with the people of all sections of the commonwealth, and knows their needs as affected by the administration of public affairs He is distinguished by a frank simplicity of character, evenness of temper, and an honest desire and endeavor to do his duty. In a true sense of all that the word implies he is an American. It would be difficult to find a man more pre-eminently qualified and practically equipped to perform the duties of chief executive of his native state."

Another endorsement that carries with it great weight is that which comes from Hon J Benjamin Dimmick, of Scranton, who in 1914 was a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. Among other things Mr Dimmick says:

"The next Governor of Pennsylvania should be a man of broad and thorough intellectual frame and equipment, a man of demonstrated ability and experience in affairs, a man, if possible, familiar with the governmental machinery of the state In my opinion Senator Sproul meets completely, and to an exceptional extent, those requirements"

Dr. Conwell's Views.

Dr. Russell H Conwell, Pastor of Baptist Temple, Philadelphia, and President of Temple University, is another man of nation wide prominence who is outspoken in his support of Senator Sproul Dr Conwell, in the course of a statement concerning the situation, closes with the following ringing words:

"Because I believe in a government of the people, and believe that a pure democracy best expresses itself in a republic—and because the people need their very strongest men at this time—and because they need representatives with broad views and political experience—and because Senator Sproul's past service assures the people of a faithful and conscientious servant—I believe in his election to the governorship of Pennsylvania."

Lieutenant Governor Frank B McClain, than whom there is no more popular state official, does not mince words in stating how he stands on the gubernatorial contest. At the ovation tendered Senator Sproul by the people of Chester recently, Mr. McClain delivered a beautiful address on his close friendship to and intimate knowledge of Senator Sproul Here are a few sentences from Mr. McClain's speech:

"For twenty years I have been his colleague at Harrisburg in the law making body of the commonwealth I make no exaggeration of his merit when I say that during all those years there has been no member of either branch who has displayed greater capacity and but very few of equal capacity, in dealing with subjects in legislation vital to the welfare of the people of the Keystone State. The need of the times in Pennsylvania is for a Governor of the type of William C Sproul."

Labor With Sproul.

Labor stands strongly behind Senator Sproul. Though a large employer of labor almost since he reached his majority, he has ever given square and fair treatment to those in his employment In the State Senate, Senator Sproul's record on labor legislation has met with the approval of the most influential labor leaders of the state

Must Be Loyal To Government

This town seems to have resolved to be 100 per cent perfect in the sale of bonds for the Third Liberty Loan. Loyalty to the government is the word and no one man is big enough to stand in the way of helping to save the boys who are fighting There is not a man in this great commonwealth but what can save the disgrace of tar and feathers if he cares to. Not only in Monessen has the tar bucket been brought forth as an instrument to instill patriotism, but elsewhere people are resorting to this means of teaching patriotism A special dispatch to the press today from the following towns says:

Johnstown, Pa—Ministers, merchants and bankers took part in a canvass of an alien community for the sale of Liberty bonds that wound up in the tarring and feathering of 20 Austrians at Conemaugh, a suburb of this city Whether any of the ministers, merchants and bankers had a hand in the wholesale tar and feather proceedings is not known. The victims were paraded through the town to the office of Burgess W. H. Crum, who fined them on a charge of disorderly conduct The Austrians refused to contribute toward a fund for purchasing a large American flag and to a fund for the purchase of uniforms for the Home Guards. They have also refused to subscribe for Liberty bonds or donate money to the Red Cross

Connellsville, Pa.—Alleged to have made remarks that the President had no business going into war with Germany, also calling certain Red Cross workers "grafters," William Gardner, a Western Maryland passenger brakeman, was arrested and fined, but the fine was later remitted when he agreed to buy a Liberty bond and also to apologize to a certain Red Cross worker.

Elwood City, Pa—Sam Turcic and Frank Lektolic, Austrians, drew their wages at the Shelby Tube works and tried to leave town without buying bonds Other employes who had kept them under surveillance because of their boasts, applied a generous coat of tar to their naked bodies and then lacking feathers, compelled the foreigners to don their clothes over the sticky mess They were then ordered to leave town which they did

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then Back hurts and Bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble

Killed in Disaster

Word has been just received by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jobes of Donora that their son, Ernest E. Jobes, lost his life in the disaster when the freighter, Florence H. was destroyed in a French harbor on April 17. This was a lake steamer that had been transformed into a sea going vessel and the Donora boy was a first class seaman on board. He is the first Donora boy to lose his life in war.

He enlisted in the naval service on November 7, 1917, and was immediately sent to Newport, R. I., for training on board the vessel. When the ill fated ship sailed from this country a few weeks ago he was one of 25 navy men assigned to guard duty on board.

Young Jobes was just 20 years of age He was born in Brownsville in 1898 and came to Donora with his parents in 1915. He was well known and was popular in that community. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Buried With Honors

With the British Army in France, April 23.—A large number of British fighting men and aviation officers, as well as Americans, stationed at an airdrome nearby, attended the burial yesterday of Capt. Aaron von Richthofen, who was laid away in a graveyard a little hamlet near Sailly de Sac, where he was shot down in an airial combat on Sunday.

It was an impressive funeral, worthy of the greatest aviator yet produced by the Central allies. No finer rite could have been performed had it been the premier Allied pilot who lost hi life, instead of this intrepid German whom all honored.

The thoughts of those who stood at the grave while the army chaplain read the beautiful Church of England service were expressed in an inscription on one of the floral wreaths: "Gallant and worthy foe."

One particularly striking touch was added to the ceremony. As the chaplain took his place by the grave a squadron of British airplanes came circling from all directions, and thruout the service wheeled over the graveyard at a low altitude.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG
Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.
Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.
A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Girl Recovering

Friends of Mrs. Eugene Kuhns, the young girl who was shot by her husband, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horner of Derry, because she refused to return and live with him, brought back encouraging reports from the West Penn hospital, where Mrs. Kuhns is a patient. Mrs. Kuhns' conditions is reported to be quite satisfactory and she is improving steadily. Surgeons anticipate a complete and early recovery unless develop. Mrs. Kuhns was wounded four times, more than than two weeks ago when her husband fired eleven shots from the doorway of the Horner home, five of them inflicting wounds which later caused the death of her parents in the West Penn hospital.

Kuhns is an inmate in the Westmoreland county jail in Greensburg, awaiting trial for murder at the coming May term of court.

WORLD'S GREATEST LIBERTY LOAN MADE BY PERSHING

The greatest Liberty Loan of the world was made by General Pershing when he told General Foch that the American troops were at his disposal.

"We shall be honored," he said, "if you will accept our troops to use as you find best. I ask it in my name and in that of the American people."

Of course it was the cause of General Pershing and of all of us that General Foch would use them for. The courtesy lay in giving up, personally, control of the army, in erasing its boundary lines as an American division, in the gesture of complete confidences, of unity, of devotion to one cause.

There is something like a great, thrillling, dramatic, sacrificial emblem of what we are doing right here at home, in those words of General Pershing. We are saying to Uncle Sam: "We shall be honored if you will accept our money to use as you find best."

Of course it is our cause that Uncle Sam is going to use it for. It is for the defense of our homes, our institutions, our country; just as General Foch is using our men—and his own men—for us in France.

It is only a matter of self denial when we turn in our money to Uncle Sam to use for a while, taking a Liberty bond as a receipt.

The importance lies in the fact that it, too, is a gesture of confidence, of unity, of devotion to the cause, or realization that it is the cause of each of us. Otherwise it might as well be raised by taxation.

It is a gesture that Germany will not fail to see and understand. It is a gesture that is going to make us a more united and a better people than we have ever been before.

German diplomacy seems definitely to have adopted the policy of offering peace at the conclusion of every territory acquiring drive. For the more enemy territory they have under control when peace negotiations finally begin, the better bargain they can make in the finish.

And then refusal to entertain these offers seems to put upon the allies the responsibility for continuing the war. That is really the whole German aim.

Germany today wants peace only upon their own terms, dictated from Potsdam to the shame and humiliation of all her opponents. And there are a few lonesome growing pacifists in America who seemingly would be satisfied to deal with the Hun upon those grounds. Thank God thre are only a few of them. Men of this stripe should remember Russia.

"The fool was stripped to his foolish hide," Kipling wrote, and he might well have had Russia in prophetic mind. For Russia listened to the German tempter and virtually lost all else. She is today wrecked of government, plundered of territory and disorganized utterly as a nation. And for years to come, she will be paying tribute to the Germans in the way of indemnity.

Germany's treatment of Russia will be duplicated in her treatment of every one of her opponents who capitulate before Germany is brought to her knees. And if Germany wins the war, Russia's fate will be ours unless Uncle Sam alone can beat off the Hun.

We musn't forget this for one single moment. We musn't weaken in any particular at any stage of the fight. We must all do our utmost to help the cause. American troops are nobly doing their part in the trenches. We must do ours at home. We must buy Liberty bonds.

No German Meetings

A ban of public meetings conducted in the German language was announced by William B. Mills, Philadelphia's new superintendent of police. In refusing a request for a permit for a meeting Mr. Mills said: "Such affairs are fertile ground for German propaganda and are breeders of spy work. This has been proved by repeated investigations. I will issue no permit for a meeting to be held in German during the war."

Boy Still Missing

Steubenville, O., April 26.—Charged with complicity in the knidnapping of James, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moffit of this place, who disappeared while on his way home from the Grant school on the afternoon of December 20, Joseph A. Awaid, a Syrian, 26 years old, following a hearing before Mayor Frank Fiest this afternoon was held for the grand jury without bail.

Mr. and Mrs. Moffit were the main witnesses against the man. They said that shortly after the disappearance of their son, Awaid came to them, posing as a detective, and said that he would locate the missing boy. They said that he came several times and told them that he needed money to carry on his investigations. Miffit said that he had paid over $500 to him.

He said that Awaid came to him last Wednesday and told him that he had located the boy and that he would be able to return him for $1,700. Moffit said that he had raised the money by selling his house and by borrowing money from friends. He said that he told Awaid he would pay him the money when his son was returned to him, but Awaid refused, and becoming suspicious, he notified the police.

Awaid denied that he helped kidnap the boy, but he said that he knew where the boy was being held. questioned by Mayor Fiest, he said that the boy was being held in the woods two miles north of Steubenville.

Following the disclosures made by Awaid, a posse was formed to search the woods and drag the river. Late tonight no trace of the missing child had been found.

Sailor Killed

After having crossed the Atlantic ocean 16 times, three times being on a ship at which a German U-boat fired torpedoes, Adrian Veenema, a native of Holland, was instantly killed while tresspassing on the railroad near Penn station.

Veenema and his chum, Cornelius Donk, were hiking it from Pittsburg to New York. Donk says that the noise of two freight trains pasing at the time covered the sound of the approaching passenger. He was walking on the outside ties and had stepped off just before the train passed them, which struck Veenema, who was walking inside the rails.

Both men were expert oilers and ship engine room men. An employment agency in New York had advanced them money to come to Pittsburg and get positions as engineers on a boat. When they reached Pittsburg they could find no trace of either employment agency or boat.

It was the first time they had ever been any distance away from the sea coast. They finally secured employment in the plant of the Crucible Steel company, but they were accustomed to working in the engine room of deep sea seamers and the unaccustomed work proved arduous so they finally decided to foot it back to New York harbor.

Veenema had fifteen cents in his pockets when killed. The two sailors had expected to make expenses along the route by doing odd jobs. The victim of the accident had taken out his citizen papers. Photographs of relatives in Holland and other papers were found on his person. He was fairly well dressed.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond and loving remembrance of my dearly belored husband, Robert Wilson, who departed this life on the 27th of April, 1917, and was interred in Grandview cemetery, Monessen, Pa.

"Gone but not Forgotten."

The midnight stars are shining,
Upon that silent grave,
Where the one we loved lies sleeping,
The one we could not save.
We often sit and think of him,
When we are all alone;
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
Like ivy on the withered oak,
When other things decay;
Our love for him will still keep green,
And never fade away.

Ever remembered by his loving and sorrowful widow and children.

Mrs. Robert Wilson,
McMahon Ave.,
Monessen, Pa.
